NOTIFICATION.

No. 11449—Legis. 69, dated Bangalore, the 9th January 1902.

The accompanying Draft of a Regulation to amend the Law of Evidence with respect to Bankers' Books, which is under the consideration of Government, is published for general information, with a Statement of Objects and Reasons :—

By Order,

H. V. NANJUNDAYYA,
Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.

DRAFT REGULATION.

A Regulation to amend the Law of Evidence with respect to Bankers' Books.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the Law of Evidence with respect to Bankers' Books; Her Highness the Maharani-Regent is pleased to enact as follows :—

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Regulation may be called the Bankers' Books Evidence Regulation, 190 .
- (2) It extends to the whole of Mysore ; and
- (3) It shall come into force at once.

Definitions.

2. In this Regulation, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "company" means a company registered under any of the enactments relating to companies for the time being in force in Mysore or in the United Kingdom or any of the Colonies or Dependencies therof or in British India, or incorporated by an Act of Parliament or of the Governor General in Council, or by Royal Charter or Letters Patent :

(2) "bank" and "banker" mean—

- (a) any company carrying on the business of bankers,
- (b) any partnership or individual to whose books the provisions of this Regulation shall have been extended as hereinafter provided,
- (c) any Post Office Savings Bank or Money Order Office :

(3) "bankers' books" include ledgers, day-books, cash-books, account-books and all other books used in the ordinary business of a bank : .

(4) "legal proceeding" means any proceeding or inquiry in which evidence is or may be given, and includes an arbitration :

(5) "the Court" means the person or persons before whom a legal proceeding is held or taken :

(6) "Judge" means a Judge of the Chief Court :

(7) "trial" means any hearing before the Court at which evidence is taken : and

(8) "certified copy" means a copy of any entry in the books of a bank together with a certificate written at the foot of such copy that it is a true copy of such entry, that such entry is contained in one of the ordinary books of the bank and was made in the usual and ordinary course of business, and that such book is still in the custody of the bank, such certificate being dated and subscribed by the principal accountant or manager of the bank with his name and official title.

3. The Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, extend the provisions of this Regulation to the books of any partnership or individual carrying on the business of bankers in Mysore, and keeping a set of not less than three ordinary account books, namely, a cash-book, a day-book or journal, and a ledger, and may in like manner rescind any such notification.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation, a certified copy of any entry in a bankers' book shall in all legal proceedings be received as Mode of proof of entries in bankers' books. prima facie evidence of the existence of such entry, and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters, transactions and accounts therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent as, the original entry itself is now by law admissible but not further or otherwise.

(2) In the case of a company not carrying on business in Mysore, a certified copy of any entry in a bankers' book kept by it may be similarly dealt with if, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Court thinks fit to do so.

5. No officer of a bank shall in any legal proceeding to which the bank is not a party be compelled to produce any bankers' book the contents of which can be proved under this Regulation, or to appear as a witness to prove the matters, transactions and accounts therein recorded, unless by order of the Court or a Judge made for special cause.

6. (1) On the application of any party to a legal proceeding, the Court or a Judge may order that such party be at liberty to inspect and take copies of any entries in a bankers' book for any of the purposes of such proceeding, or may order the bank to prepare and produce, within a time to be specified in the order, certified copies of all such entries, accompanied by a further certificate that no other entries are to be found in the books of the bank relevant to the matters in issue in such proceeding, and such further certificate shall be dated and subscribed in manner hereinbefore directed in reference to certified copies.

(2) An order under this or the preceding section may be made either with or without summoning the bank, and shall be served on the bank three clear days (exclusive of bank holidays) before the same is to be obeyed, unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise direct.

(3) The bank may at any time before the time limited for obedience to any such order as aforesaid either offer to produce their books at the trial or give notice of their intention to show cause against such order, and thereupon the same shall not be enforced without further order.

7. (1) The costs of any application to the Court or a Judge under or for the purposes of this Regulation, and the costs of anything done or to be done under an order of the Court or a Judge made under or for the purposes of this Regulation, shall be in the discretion of the Court or Judge, who may further order such costs or any part thereof to be paid to any party by the bank, if they have been incurred in consequence of any fault or improper delay on the part of the bank.

(2) Any order made under this section for the payment of costs to or by a bank may be enforced as if the bank were a party to the proceeding.

(3) Any order under this section awarding costs may, on application to any Court of Civil Judicature designated in the order, be executed by such Court as if the order were a decree for money passed by itself.

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to derogate from any power which the Court or Judge making the order may possess for the enforcement of its or his directions with respect to the payment of costs.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Draft Regulation, which has been drawn up on the recommendation of the Chief Court, is to apply to Mysore the provisions of the Bankers' Books Evidence Act, XVIII of 1891, under which copies of entries in bankers' books are made receivable in evidence in British India under certain conditions.

2. As regards companies not carrying on business in Mysore, and in respect of which compulsory proceedings under Sections 5, 6 and 7 would not generally be feasible, it has nevertheless been considered desirable not to exclude them altogether from the benefit of the proposed law, but to make it discretionary with the Court to admit in evidence certified copies of bankers' books kept by them if, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, the Court thinks fit to do so—(clause 2 of Section 4 of the Draft).

No. 11464—Ex. F. 3-1901, dated 10th January 1902.
